

Eric G. Regelin
Immediate Past Chairman
Associated Builders and Contractors

Eric G. Regelin, president of GRANIX, LLC, Ellicott City, Md., a construction management and construction support services firm, is 2013 immediate past chairman of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC).

He previously served two terms as ABC's Mid-Atlantic Region vice chairman. The Mid-Atlantic Region includes members and chapters in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

Regelin is the former chairman of ABC Services Corporation. Regelin also served as chairman of ABC's Governance Task Force and its Retirement Committee. In addition, he was formerly a member of the Grassroots Committee and a liaison to the Government and External Relations Coordinating Committee. At the chapter level, Regelin served two terms as chairman of the Baltimore Metro Chapter and is a member of the chapter's Joint Legislative Committee and Political Action Committee. He currently serves as a Trustee to the Trimmer Education Foundation and serves on the editorial board of Construction Executive magazine.

Regelin is a LEED Building Design and Construction accredited professional and received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Baltimore Metro Chapter of ABC. He has earned 16 safety awards from the Baltimore Metro Chapter as well as 34 Excellence in Construction awards.

Regelin received a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from Purdue University and served on the university's School of Civil Engineering Advisory Council. He obtained his master's degree in business administration from Duquesne University in 1982.

###

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a national association with 72 chapters representing 22,000 merit shop construction and construction-related firms. Visit us at www.abc.org.